Dear Pete,

I don't know if you regularly or ever see the New Yorker mag, but when I came upon this cartoon in the May 9 issue:

THE NEW YORKER

41

"You wanted me to let you know when it was apple-blossom time in Orange, New Jersey."

I decided it must be a divine prompt to log on to the old system and issue
a query or two, such as

HOW OLD PETE HOLLENBECK

Old G. Shaw fine; we made it back from England; Molly has graduated from UC
and is planning to marry an astronomer; Wendy's a senior at Santa Cruz; Barbara's still running the Livermore buses; I'm still fooling with computers; we finally bought a car (A TOYOTA);
and I have become a T-totaler (throw away your crutches: stay in bed!). Regards to you & Martha & all,
Gary.
